The Dean’s Summer Research Assistantship
Summer 2018
Call for Applications

The Honors College invites applications for the Dean’s Summer Research Assistantship for summer 2018. Five stipends, of $1,000, will be awarded to five Disciplinary or Full Honors students beginning research or creative activity on their Senior Honors Project. Students must work with their Senior Honors Project faculty mentor to develop their proposal, and are expected to work with and/or meet with the faculty mentor regularly through the duration of the stipulated time (see below).

The student and faculty mentor will create a typed proposal of no more than three pages plus a bibliography that details: 1) the names of the student and faculty mentor and the department of the faculty mentor; 2) the project goals, including any necessary background, context, hypotheses, objectives, and significance of the project; 3) a statement of methods the student researcher/creator will use in undertaking the work; 4) the benefits to the student and the mentor in undertaking the project; 5) a bibliography. Please complete the attached Dean’s Summer Research Assistantship Form and turn it in along with your proposal.

Eligibility:

- Applicants must be in good standing in the Honors College
- Applicants must be actively engaged in pursuing Disciplinary or Full Honors

Expectations:

- Students and faculty mentors must have weekly contact over the course of a minimum of eight (8) weeks (meeting in person, via email, telephone, and/or teleconference)
- Students will present the result of their research at the Annual Undergraduate Honors Symposium in February 2019.
- Students will submit their final paper to Y Draig Goch: An Interdisciplinary Honors Journal.

Deadline: Applications (the proposal and the attached Dean’s Summer Research Assistantship Form) are due to 205 Foust by 5 p.m. on Friday, April 6.
